

ALEXANDRIA.

MONDAY EVENING, FEBRUARY 3.

Another portion of the Radical programme is now announced. It is to pass a law by Congress, "to enforce the guarantee clause of the Constitution '- guaranteeing a republican form of government to each State with a provision compelling every State that changes its form of government to submit the same to the representatives of all the other States, which are partners in this Government for ratification." This it is said "will nationalize the United States of America." Verily it willand with a vengeance. This project is elaborately recommended in the columns of the Washington Chronicle. What next.

The National Intelligencer has an article in which it contends that "nearly all the offices are filled by the confidants of the President's immediate official advisors, who work hard to sustain the Radical party in all the States of the North". And it argues that "the camp should be cleared of neutrals, open enemies, and especially of spies." This policy it supports in view of the present existing state of affiairsnot as a general rule—and the crisis which is impending. But the Senate and the recent law of Congress, it is said, prevents the application of the propose rule, to a great extent.

Rev. W. C. Hoyt, Secretary of the Central Centenary Committee, has prepared a summary of the Centenary contributions of the Methodist Episcopal Church. The totals for connectional and local objects are embraced in the returns. The Central Illinois. Detroit, East Genesee and Minnesota Conferences have not yet reported. The Philadelphia and Michigan Conference reports are incomplete. The grand total is over eight millions of dollars, so far.

A letter addressed by ex-Governor Perry, of South Carolina, to Capt. O. N. Butler, of that State, but now residing in Baltimore, gives a graphic and most deplorable picture of the present condition and future prospects of the great Southern section of our country. The "Vesuvius" news, trensmitted by Atlantic Cable, and which, it is now said, was all false, shows that the public has no more guaranty for truth, by "telegraphic dispatches" from Europe, then they have by similar dispatches over the wires in this country. However, the Vesuvius news was not designed to operate upon stocks, or gold, or grain, or cotton, or tobacco, or business-that's one confort.

There is a difficulty in Maryland, relative to the issuing of the Commission to Mr. Hamilton, the newly elected Senator from that State, in consequence of a construction of the law requiring one of the Senators to come from the Eastern Shore of the State. The subject has been broached in the Legislature, and will be resumed on Wednesday.

Sensational paragraphs are set affoat in the newspapers, relative to difficulties with Env land, concerning what are called the "Alabama Claims," It is more than probable that negotiations on the subject will be renewed by Mr. Thornton, the new British Minister. What will be the result, of course, no body yet knows.

One "on-dit" in the newspapers is, "pistols and coffee are to be provided for Messrs. Snead rivers of that colony. and Bowden of the Convention!" Another is, that this is a mistake, and that it should read "coffee and oysters!"

'And it is for this,' she ruefully exclaimed, 'that I have left Aberdeenshire!' A like disenchantment has fallen to the lot of those countrymen and country women whom the hope of soft Favonian breezes has this year attracted to the South. Snow high in the streets-snow interrupting all railway communication-snow keeping imprisoned all over the country those members of families who had gone to spend the New Year's day under the paternal roof—snow retarding minisbrea fretting for the arrival of the letters which . How IT Works .- The following extract o a letter from a gentleman who was formerly Governor of one of the Northern States, to his friend with whom he had been in negotiation for the of purchase lands in the South, shows "how it works," and tells the whole tale of the injury and wrong done to the South, by Radi cal legislation.

"After thorough investigation and much de liberation, I have reluctantly, but firmly de-The Fenian circles in the vicinity of Boston | cided that it is not a prudent thing for me t purchase Southern lands at this time. The future of the South is precarious. The revengeful spirit evinced by Congress toward the South deters me from making any investment where there is no security for property. Your negro labor will be utterly demoralized, and can never be worked to any extent profitable. It is not in the page of history that any people have manifested such madness and folly. I am apprehensive that I should be buying a great deal of trouble. Thornburg offered me many inducements, and I had matured some plans of my own in relation to the Roanoke lands which I should like to have carried out, but must forego them. Since I first saw the property the gloom has been accumulating over the unreconstructed States, and the ques tion has been with me whether lought to purchase at any reasonable price, and I now decide that I decline to do so. The act of the House of Representatives yesterday would decide the question with me if there was nothing else.

> STRANGE STORY .- Among the victims of the Angola disaster was Mr. J. P. Hayward, who was in the employ of the railroad company as their agent at that place. The Painesville (Ohio) Advertiser gives an account of a strange dream-for the correctness of which it vouches -which Mr. H. had just six months before he lost his life. It says :

> "He dreamed that he was away from home, in a desert, when suddenly he heard a terrific crash, saw a bright light which seemed to reach to the heavens, and heard screams and yells of the most frightful character. On looking about him he saw a personage -a monk he thought-and inquired where all this noise came from. "From hell," answered the monk. The dreamer asked, "What does it mean?" The monk replied. "It means that you must instantly die!" Mr. H. then told the monk that he was not yet prepared to die, and begged for futher time. The monk finally said, 'Your prayer is granted; you may live on earth six months longer; at the expiration of that time you shall die!" Just then Mr. Hayward was awakened by his wife, who was alarmed at her husband's actions, he sitting up in bed and being greatly agitated. The dream made a great impression upon his mind, and was the subject of frequent conversation with his friends for a time, but at length it passed from his mind. On precisely the last day of the six months he purchased a life insurance ticket for $3,000, took passage on the ill-fated train for Buffalo, and was numbered among the he victims at Angola.

The committee on banks reported in favor of prohibiting the Legislature granting charters to corporations which discount paper at unlawful rates of interest; also, prohibiting, persons who do so from holding State offices.

A substitute to a clause in the report was adopted, taxing male citizens one dollar for the benefit of schools, and fifty cents for general purposes.

The Charlottsville Chronicle, speaking of the Virginia Convention, says: "After thirty-tour days of actual session they have, at least, gotten through with the preamble and bill of rights, section by section, but have to get on it as a whole, when it will probably all come under discussion again, and take several days more. press was closed on Saturday. LEGISLATIVE GARRULITY REBUKED. The Providence Press tells the following good story, which should convery its own moral:

"A member of the General Assembly from a 'rural district,' who is something of a wag, approached one of the officers of the House and with a very serious looking countenance and subdued voice, stated that he was, both as a Representative and a man, in a serious difficulty. The official gravely inquired the cause. The troubled member replied that he was under the necessity of being absent for three days. 'Oh, well,' replied the official, 'that is nothing, it's a common occurrence.' 'But,' said the disconsolate one, 'that ain't exactly what's the matter. Ye see, I've heard that member speak every day, and a great many times a day, and I've kinder got used to it. It's as natural as hash for breakfast. I shall miss it if I go, and see here'-taking the official by the buttonhole-'d'ye think he'll have wind enough to hold out till I come back, for I do want to hear him once more."

UNSKILLED LABOR .- John Johnston, the noted farmer of Western New York, probably the most successful farmer in the Northern States, has taken to negro labor. He employs negroes on his farm, and likes them well; but he complains that "they cannot set themselves to work." Hearing this judgment from Mr. Johnston, the man who Walks and Talks" in the Genesee Farmer, exhorts all young men, who intend to follow farming as a pursuit, to learn, "how to set laborers to work.

He is in favor of educating young farmers to their profession, and claims that it will pay well to make this investment in the higher knowledge of the art. He thinks negroes and coolies will soon be employed to do most of the hand labor of the Northern fields, and that the land-owners and their sons should at once devote themselves to the higher departments of farm learning in order to be prepared for instructing these unskilled laborers in their duties. - Norfolk Journal.

SOUTHERN RAILROAD LANDS.-The bill contemplating forfeiture to the U.S. of certain lands granted to and in the construction of rail roads in Alabama, Missis-ippi, Louisiana, and Florida, underwent considerable discussion the other day in the House. Two amendments were offered excepting two railroads from its operation, but no vote was taken.

Mr. Washburne was for making the grant an "Indian Gift" -taking away all the lands and keeping them for "the people." Just so. 'The people, O! the people, that live up in the steeple!!' -Norfolk Journal.

A few cows and calves brought rom $40 to $80 each.

"The Cleveland Herald does not seem to have a very exalted opinion of mercantile in tegrity as developed in Chicago. It says it is a very significant fact that heavy conflagrations occur when business matters are in a depressed condition. We had few large fires in business blocks in Chicago, for instance, when goods were going up in price, and merchants were buying on a rising market. But now that mer chants are doing business on a falling market. immense fires occur. And these fires are so well set that blocks are in flames instantly, and beyond control of the firemen before the steamers can reach the ground." NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC.

Without making a useless harangue, I will say to my friends and the public that I am now prepared to supply all of their wants in the way of STOVES. It is time lost to undertake to look for anything better than can be found in my store. I have something new in the way of HEATING STOVES, which cannot be sur passed in style, or beauty of design. To one and all I will say that whatever I sell I warrant to answer the purpose I sold it for. I therefore invite my country friends to call and examine my stock of COOKING and HEATING STOVES before purchasing elsewhere, confident that they will not go away displeased. 1 would also enumerate amongst my stock a fine lot of TIN WARE, of my own manufacture and made by very experienced workmen; also TINNED SAFES, PRESERVING KET-TLES, Fruit Cans, Fine Japanned and Plan-ished Ware and Chamber Sets, to which I would call the attention of the public. Coffee Urns, Tea Urnz, Waffle Irons, Children's Toys

Thankful for past patronage I hope to have a continuance of the same.
